FINAL REPORT

Attach a report of educational activities conducted in observance of National Coin Week 1987. Supplement your report with documentation, such as press clippings, letters of acknowledgement, programs, bulletins and photographs. The quality of your presentation and documentation will be considered when reports are chosen for publication in THE NUMISMATIST. Large, elaborate reports are discouraged, but reports in scrapbook form are quite suitable and should be considered.

New ANA members recruited during your National Coin Week campaign should be listed on the reverse of this form.

PARTICIPATION AWARDS

Awards will be provided to clubs and individuals submitting FINAL REPORTS and to the individuals and organizations designated by them. ANA members are eligible for a NCW participation medal. Individuals and institutions not members of ANA will receive certificates of participation. Your report should include a printed or typewritten list with ANA number, if applicable, of those whose support contributed significantly to the success of your local National Coin Week campaign. Certificates and medals will be sent to the above address for distribution.

All FINAL REPORTS should be sent First Class Mail, postmarked on or before May 29, 1987, to:

SUBJECT: Final Report - National Coin Week
DATE : April 24, 1987

1. During the period 19-28 Apr 1987, in observance of National Coin Week, the undersigned placed on displayed at the Barksdale Air Force Base Library an array of United States Coinage, World Coins, and Official US Mint Commemorative Medals. Featured on display was a 1900 Lafayette Commemorative Dollar (MS-60 ANA Certified), 1937-D "3 Legged" Buffalo Nickel (MS-63), and a selection of World Crowns and Olympic coins. The display contained handouts on ANA memberships, the ANA Library, and information on this years theme "Currency Worth Noting".
2. Barksdale AFB is located next to Shreveport and Bossier City, Louisiana, and has a base population of 5,400 military and 1,500 civil employees. Barksdale is the Headquarters for the Eight United States Air Force Command and the 2'nd Bombardment Wing, the largest bomb wing in the world.
3. On 21 Apr 87, the undersigned presented Ms. Julienne Wood, Base Librarian, with the 1987 edition of the Red Book, for future use of the library patron's. Ms. Wood's is a strong supporter of numismatic events and has had past coin displays in the library. Most recently a display, by the undersigned, on US Mint Presidential Medals for President's Day last February.
4. The current display for Nation Coin Week has been well received with several hundred library patrons observing the display. The library received several favorable comments from viewers and noticed an increase in numismatic material being checked out of the library by its users.
5. It is requested that Ms. Julienne Wood be presented by the ANA a participation award for this years National Coin Week and her past support of ANA and other coin events.
